

TANFIELD

PROPERTY & REAL ESTATE BARRISTERS

Ceri Edmonds

Year of call

2017

Ceri Edmonds started pupillage at Tanfield in September 2018 under the supervision of Nicola Muir and Mark Loveday.

During pupillage she has experienced a wide range of work including leasehold enfranchisement, service charges, rights of first refusal, forfeiture, mortgages, possessions and real property. She is looking to build her practice in all areas of Chambers' work, with a particular focus on property law.

Before coming to the Bar, Ceri enjoyed a successful career as a civil servant working in the UK and abroad. She has extensive experience advising ministers and senior officials, drafting reports and submissions on complex and sensitive issues.

Qualifications

- LLM in Professional Legal Practice (Distinction) BPP University
- BPTC (Very Competent), BPP University
- GDL (Distinction), BPP University
- BA (Hons) in Philosophy, Politics and Economics, University College, Oxford

Languages

- French
- Spanish (Conversational)